President's Report - July 2014

G'Day All,

Well half the year has gone, not having the Fun Day left a bit of a hole in the month, but Bluewater still went ahead and a lot of us attended the socials at the Kelso Club.

This month's Sing Live will be the last one at St Josephs but we will be continuing at the Pitt Stop on the last Sunday of the month from September. There will be none in July owing to the Hughenden Festival being on, and in August the Fun Day will be on the last Sunday of the month owing to St Joseph's Fete on the second Sunday.

The Cent Sale is on the 12th July, and we would love some more tinned or packet food for prizes. See Maureen. August is the campout at Toomby's so keep that weekend free as we want to make it a good one with plenty of music and hopefully a bonfire at night.

At the June meeting it was decided to update some more of our sound gear, so we have ordered a 24 channel "Allen and Heath" Mixer and some new fold backs. We will be able to run the fold backs separately to enable you to get what you want through your fold back but this will only work if the sound level is kept down to where you can hear it but not the patrons at the front, they want to hear the front of house speakers.

To any of our Members on sick call, we want you to get better soon as we miss you.

Country Always,

Darryl

It was late at night and Heidi, who was expecting her second child was home alone with her 3-year old daughter Katelyn. When Heidi started going into labor, she called "000." Due to a power outage at the time, only one paramedic responded to the call. The house was very dark, so the paramedic asked Katelyn to hold a flashlight high over her mommy so he could see while he helped deliver the baby. Katelyn did as she was asked. Heidi pushed and pushed, and after a little while Connor was born. The paramedic lifted him by his little feet and spanked him on his bottom. Connor began to cry. The paramedic then thanked Katelyn for her help and asked the wide-eyed 3-year old what she thought about what she had just witnessed. Katelyn quickly responded, "He shouldn't have crawled in there in the first place. Smack him again!"
