President's Report for June

G'Day All,

A busy month has gone by with a great attendance at Friday night and Funday (even though it was Mothers Day). The jam at Pallarenda was tops although the wind caused an earlier than expected finish(I think it knew I was about to sing).

Thanks to all the Ladies that made the very tasty food for us on the day. The wind has been a real enemy over the last couple of weeks, with blowing two of our gazebos into the carpark at Sportscene and Toy world sausage sizzle, thankfully there were no cars hit, but it wrecked the gazebos.

No Friday night this month as it falls on the long weekend, and the Funday has been moved to the Saturday 13th owing to the school being booked by the Parish on the Sunday.

We are moving along with our organisation of the Festival, but we need Sponsors so if you know of any please let one of the committee know.

The new powered Q.S.C.K series speakers have been ordered and should arrive shortly, so that should complete the sound system upgrade for the time being. As I mentioned in the last report we do have a write up on microphone technique which is very important to your performance, so if you haven't got a copy please ask.

It was great to see Larry Amos at Pallarenda, Larry who has been on the sick list is now on the mend. Roger Wickham is also up and running (well almost) since his knee operation. To anyone else on the sick list please get well soon.

Until next time, Country always,

Darryl

 Townsville City Muster
 Tickets at Shamrock Hotel or Brandy's Restaurant or www.oztix.com.au

Townsville's very first music muster is headlined by Adam Brand and is an event not to be missed. Doors will open at 2pm and tickets are available from the Shamrock Hotel and Brandy's Restaurant at $25 or $30 on the day. Tickets are also available online from oztix.com.au. There is standing and seating and is a street style party so the music is all played out on the open street. It will be a massive day with more local acts to be announced. Unfortunately due to restrictions involving licensing laws this is a 18+ event and as the capacity of the venue/street is only 2500 people you may need to get in early.

A huge thank you is extended to all those who volunteered with the cooking of the food, setting up the barbeque and putting up all the marquis'. The family day which was very well attended proved to be a great success with even a few new talented faces and it was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Thanks also to the weather man who showed his thoughtfulness by keeping the rain away until late!!! No excuse for the wind though.

Unfortunately though the Security guy has demanded triple time Sunday rates - the matter is still under negotiation.
